Rev. David A. Jones, Pastor

Then a great and powerful wind tore the mountains
apart and shattered the rocks
before the Lord,
but the Lord was not
in the WIND.
After the wind there was an EARTHQUAKE,
but the Lord was not in the earthquake.
After the earthquake came a FIRE, but the Lord was not in the fire.
And after the fire
came a gentle whisper.

WELCOME AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

PRELUDE "Jesus Priceless Treasure"

G. Martin

*SOLEMN DECLARATION AND SUNG AMEN

*CALL TO WORSHIP

Pastor: People of God, look about and see the faces of those we know and love.

People: We see neighbors and friends, sisters and brothers – a community of kindred hearts.

Pastor: People of God, look about and see the faces of those we hardly know.

People: We see strangers, sojourners, forgotten friends, the ones who need an outstretched hand.

Pastor: People of God, look about and see all the images of God assembled here.

People: In each of us, God's Spirit shines for all to see.

Pastor: People of God, come, let us worship together.

* HYMN #143 (Green hymnal) "This Is My Father's World"

*CALL TO CONFESSION

*PRAYER OF CONFESSION

Almighty God, we confess that we have failed to care for the earth you gave us, and instead created our own world that threatens to destroy us. We have created a world in which power is held by the privileged, a world where sin is intertwined with systems of oppression and destruction. We have created a world that is not yours. You created a beautiful earth and have revealed to us the promise of your beloved community, in which heaven and earth are one. Help us to live into this wonderful vision by denying the power of this world of our own making, working to stop oppression and injustice around us. Guide us into ways of resisting evil so we might care for the earth you have created for us along with all your creatures.

Silent confession...

*KYRIE ELEISON

Lord, have mercy upon us. Lord, Have mercy upon us.

Christ, have mercy upon us. Christ, have mercy upon us.

Lord, have mercy upon us. Lord, have mercy upon us.

*ASSURANCE OF PARDON

The home of God is among mortals. God will dwell with us, and we will be God's people. God will wipe away all our tears, and death, mourning, and pain will be no more. All of these will pass away, as the reign of God comes. Join together, live into God's ways of love, justice, and mercy, and know God's peace as part of the beloved community of Jesus Christ our Lord. Thanks be to God! Amen!

*PROCLAIMING OUR FAITH – The Apostle's Creed

I believe in God the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

And in Jesus Christ his only begotten Son, our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, dead, and buried; he descended into Hades; the third day he rose again from the dead; he ascended into heaven and sitteth on the driven by the demon into the wilds.) Jesus then asked him, "What is your name?" He said, "Legion"; for many demons had entered him. They begged him not to order them to go back into the abyss.

Now there on the hillside a large herd of swine was feeding; and the demons begged Jesus to let them enter these. So he gave them permission. Then the demons came out of the man and entered the swine, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake and was drowned.

When the swineherds saw what had happened, they ran off and told it in the city and in the country. Then people came out to see what had happened, and when they came to Jesus, they found the man from whom the demons had gone sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed and in his right mind. And they were afraid. Those who had seen it told them how the one who had been possessed by demons had been healed. Then all the people of the surrounding country of the Gerasenes asked Jesus to leave them; for they were seized with great fear. So he got into the boat and returned. The man from whom the demons had gone begged that he might be with him; but Jesus sent him away, saying, "Return to your home, and declare how much God has done for you." So he went away, proclaiming throughout the city how much Jesus had done for him.

1 Kings 19: 1 – 15a

Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had killed all the prophets with the sword. Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, "So may the gods do to me, and more also, if I do not make your life like the life of one of them by this time tomorrow." Then he was afraid; he got up and fled for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongs to Judah; he left his servant there.

But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a solitary broom tree. He asked that he might die: "It is enough; now, O Lord, take away my life, for I am no better than my ancestors." Then he lay down under the broom tree and fell asleep. Suddenly an angel touched him and said to him, "Get up and eat." He looked, and there at his head was a cake baked on hot stones, and a jar of water. He ate and drank, and lay down again. The angel of the Lord came a second time, touched him, and said, "Get up and eat, otherwise the journey will be too much for you." He got up, and ate and drank; then he went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God. At that place he came to a cave, and spent the night there.

Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" He answered, "I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away."

He said, "Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by." Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence. When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, "What are you doing here, Elijah?" He answered, "I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away." Then the Lord said to him, "Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus."

Luke 8: 26 – 39

Then they arrived at the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee. As he stepped out on land, a man of the city who had demons met him. For a long time he had worn no clothes, and he did not live in a house but in the tombs. When he saw Jesus, he fell down before him and shouted at the top of his voice, "What have you to do with me, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torment me"— for Jesus had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. (For many times it had seized him; he was kept under guard and bound with chains and shackles, but he would break the bonds and be
