A FATHER'S DAY PRAYER

God,

Today, as we observe Father's Day, we lift all the fathers and grandfathers of this world up to You with adoration and love.

Fathers play an integral role in the lives of our children, as mentors, providers, caregivers and so much more. They also provide a firm foundation on which our children stand.

God, we ask that you guide them to be good role models and loving to their children.

We also ask that You help them to be a father like You are.

Give them grace and patience to handle situations in a loving way.

Amen.

A Godly Father is:

Faithful, to God and family.

Able, to discern God's will in trying times and good times.

Thankful, for all the joys and trials of life.

Happy, no matter what the life brings.

Enthusiastic, about a life lived with purpose.

Righteous, rock-solid in heart and mind, from a growing relationship with Jesus.

For these things and so many more we praise God for our Fathers, this Father's Day and always.

Dad, God's Masterpiece

God took the strength of a mountain,
The majesty of a tree,
The warmth of a summer sun,
The calm of a quiet sea,

The generous soul of nature,
The comforting arm of night,
The wisdom of the ages,
The power of the eagle's flight

Then God combined all these qualities,
When there was nothing more to add,
He knew His masterpiece was complete,
And so, He called it ... DAD

Scriptures about a Father's Love

"Blessed is the Father who shares his heart, lives his faith, gives his time and loves his family." Proverbs 20:7

"If you then, who are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him!" Luke 11:13

"Hear, O sons, a father's instruction, and be attentive, that you may gain insight." Proverbs 4:1

"Grandchildren are the crown of the aged, and the glory of children is their fathers." Proverbs 17:6

"A father is someone you look up to no matter how tall you grow."

"The only thing better than having you as a dad is my kids getting to have you as a granddad."

The Journey Continues...

When I first moved to Lebanon, there were things I needed to learn and adjustments I had to make if I was going to fit in. For instance, I needed to learn how real Lebanon bologna is different from the bologna I grew up with living in Pittsburgh. I needed to learn how Lebanon is pronounced "Lepnun" and how to properly pronounce "Lancaster" (not LANG-caster). I learned in Lebanon that gobs are called whoopie pies and pop is called soda. And I learned about PA Dutch foods like scrapple, potato filling, and chicken pot pie. Growing up near Pittsburgh, scrapple and potato filling are pretty much non-existent, and chicken pot pie was found in the freezer section of the grocery store. I'll admit, pot pie made the Dutch way is a lot better than the pot pie I grew up eating out of the freezer section.

But even if we've lived in Lebanon our whole lives, there are changes in the city that are affecting us every day. Thank goodness some of these changes are temporary...like the construction on our roads. I don't have to tell you that driving through town has become a bit annoying. There are orange barrels and cones every where you look that are guiding us through (and around) road construction. And there doesn't seem to be any thought or planning ahead of time for the roads they chose to dig up. You would think they would have a system – like starting on the south end of town and moving north, or starting in the west and moving east. Not in Lebanon. Here, the locations they have chosen seem random and unconnected. And more than once I've come across a detour that has redirected me into another construction site on another street. It's like the left hand doesn't know what the right hand is doing. And that is only one of the issues. Another issue is the lack of effort the work crews put forth to patch the holes they've dug in the road. Our roads weren't great before being dug up, but now they are a lumpy and bumpy mess.

But beyond the challenges of navigating through construction zones in the city, there are many other challenges we are facing these days. Like the weather. All over the country people are dealing with extreme weather events such as record heat, record rains/flooding, record drought, and record numbers (and severity) of events like tornados and hurricanes. And it's not just the weather. Inflation has finally leveled off, but the everyday things still seem so expensive. The stock market is up and down like a roller coaster and people are turning to violence to solve their problems in alarming numbers.

With so much instability in our lives, we need a ton of patience and self control because we know more changes and challenges are coming. Now we can look at Jesus and try to imitate how Jesus faced various issues. But let's be honest, the way Jesus handled challenges is light years away from what we are able to do. What we can do is to look to our savior for the strength, and inspiration, and patience that we need to face our challenges as people of faith. And when our patience runs thin – because it will run thin – we can look to Jesus for the forgiveness we need as well. For all of the changes and challenges we are facing these days, it's a good thing we have at least one thing that remains the same.

The Journey Continues...Pastor Dave

WHAT'S HAPPENING AT ST. MARKS

Well, we have finally reached the end of the pandemic. Many things have changed in these last few years. Businesses have closed, people have lost jobs, relationships, and loved ones, and many have had to change the way they live their lives.

The church has had to change also. When I reflect back on these last few years, we have had many struggles here at St. Marks, but I think we can feel very proud that we have “weathered the storm” and are a stronger church than we were in 2020. As I sat in the choir loft this morning looking out over our congregation, my heart filled with joy. We may be a smaller number of worshipers than we were before the pandemic, but I believe we are a much stronger and closer knit church family than we were pre-pandemic. I watched people greeting one another, holding small conversations, and smiling hello to those around them. I feel we have truly strengthened our purpose as an inter-city church. We are not only reaching out to one another, but also reaching out to others in our community.

Congratulations to each member of St. Marks for BEING THE CHURCH THAT GOD WANTS US TO BE!!

THANK YOU

I'm sure many of you have noticed how great the landscaping looks around our church. This doesn't happen by accident. Many people have spent time helping our church have a neat appearance. Thank you to the youth/young adults and their leaders for doing the mulching. Also, thank you to Jim Schucker for planting and maintaining the beautiful flowers. Jim also is responsible for our shrubbery being trimmed. The new door for the Little Free Library is a work of Nate Bell and Josh Trovinger. Thanks to everyone for maintaining the outside of our church.

Also, a huge “THANK YOU” to Ken Shultz for stepping in to direct the choir in Jeff's absence. Ken's willingness to help is greatly appreciated.

Report of the Consistory – May 2023

The church will be hosting a community dinner on Saturday, May 20th. It will be available to members of the community by driving up or walking up to the back of the church building. There will not be indoor seating. Sno cones and bagged snacks will be distributed to the students in the neighborhood on the last day of school on June 8th. The volunteers will set up at 8th and Monument Streets. A meal will be provided to the residents of the Lebanon Rescue Mission on Thursday, June 15th. Several members have volunteered to grill burgers and sausages and to help in the kitchen with other meal preparation. Jeffrey Clouser, Music Ministry Coordinator, has been unable to conduct the choirs due to illness. Ken Shultz will be acting conductor until he is able to return. Gail Winters has been appointed to complete Kathy Andrews' term on the nominating committee. A new roofing contractor had been found for the pavilion and porch project at Pine Acres. The backstop project is completed and the AED has been installed. A large tree will be removed. Several changes to the membership policies were reviewed and additional changes were suggested. The changes will be brought to a future meeting for another review.

WE MISS YOU POSTCARDS

Remember to fill out a postcard that is in the pews, if you haven't seen a member in church lately. You can mail it or hand it in to the office and it will be mailed for you.

We want our members to know that they are missed when they aren't at church.

Thank you for helping and reaching out to our members.

CENTERVILLE DINER 2

Jeff Clouser, our Music Ministry Coordinator, has graciously signed up St. Mark's U.C.C. at the restaurant. This is the former Country Table Restaurant. When you eat at this restaurant, they will pay 10% of your bill to the church. Remember, to go and check this place out. Their address is: 704 East Main Street, Mt. Joy, PA

May Make A Note of It...

Thank you to all those who participate in the music ministry and assist in enhancing worship at St. Mark's. Your efforts are welcomed and appreciated. A special thank you to our church family for your continued encouragement and support of the church's musical endeavors.

Sing to the Lord a Joyful Song. That is indeed what happened on Sunday, May 21st. Thank you to everyone who stepped up to the plate and pitched in to lead this special service of word and music in my absence. All the music ensembles and congregation offered beautiful music praising God and honoring the music ministry of the church. Many thanks to Ken, Cindy J., Kathy F., Cindy K., Peg, Tim, Sam, and Pastor Dave for making this Sunday a special day for the musicians and congregation. The beautiful music banners were a great addition to the worship experience too.

Additional voices and ringers are always welcomed in our musical ensembles especially altos for the adult choir. Take a look at a recent recruitment article in LebTown:

If you or someone you know is interested please see Jeff or email him at uccmusicministrycoordinator@gmail.com

Seeking Special Music Volunteers! Time to reserve your date for Summer Melodies. Three dates remain! Seeking volunteers to provide special music during worship throughout the summer while the music ensembles are on vacation. Look for the sign-up sheet on the music bulletin board in the narthex and choose your Sunday to offer a vocal/instrumental solo or duet. The available Sundays include July 30, August 6, and August 27. Only one musical selection is necessary. Thank you.

A reminder to all those who signed up for special music this summer: Please remember to contact the office with the title of your song, the composer and/or arranger, the date it was published and who published the song. This is needed for the bulletin and for license reporting purposes. Handing a copy of your music into the office would be the ideal way to handle this.

If at all possible try to choose music that ties into the theme of the service based on the scripture lessons which can be found in the revised common lectionary or by asking Pastor Dave or Cindy Klahr. And as always thank you for offering your gift of music to the church while the music ensembles take a well-deserved break during the summer. Your kindness and generosity is much appreciated.

Attention All Music Ensembles (choir/bells): Here is the Spring 2023 rehearsal schedule for choir and bells (subject to changes):

From choir to bells to special music and summer musical offerings; all of it was a blessing to the church and the community. With much appreciation I thank you and the congregation thanks you too. I hope you have an enjoyable and restful summer and we look forward to making music again this coming fall.

A word from your Music Ministry Coordinator:

I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your prayers, cards, and emails as I continue to recoup and recover from this unfortunate and challenging time I find myself in. Please continue to send all those positive vibes my way as I navigate my way through this part of my life at this time. As my church family I would like to share with you what has been going on up till now.

For me I find myself in a predicament of something I have no control over and few answers. Three weeks ago on a Thursday I had an acute attack like a heart attack at school so Brent took me to ER. Chest pain, back pain, difficulty breathing. No abdominal pain whatsoever. No fever, normal bowels, vitals ok, X-ray ok. Ultrasound and blood work for heart attack enzymes and clots ok. ER assured me it was not a heart attack but I should contact PCP and get stress test. That Friday morning still feeling awful I went to another ER for second opinion. They said same thing. EKG normal, bloodwork normal, vitals normal go see cardiologist and get stress test. So for a whole week and constant PCP appointments I stressed out about my heart. Couldn't sleep well, every pain was suspicious and could only eat BRAT diet. Taking baby aspirin. Thinking I would need heart catheterization. That Friday I had my stress test and passed. That Friday evening I tried introducing plain food and I got nauseous and didn't feel right again. So off to ER for a third time. More blood work and ultrasound for gallbladder. Ultrasound for gallbladder good but my lipase was slightly elevated so they thought pancreatitis. Sent home on an all liquid diet for two day weekend and see GI doctor on Monday week two. By this time my anxiety is through the roof. Can't sleep, finding it hard to breathe or swallow.

Had another terrible attack on the way to GI doctor thinking I might need to go to ER again but made it through the GI appointment. GI doctor said it was not gallbladder or pancreatitis and that I should think about addressing my mental health. So still not being able to really eat and breathe comfortably and my anxiety out of control with no answers to why I feel the way I do I go down the google rabbit whole about what all this could be. My PA's at the PCP try different medicine to address anxiety to no avail. So I still feel sick, can't really eat, stressing out about getting FMLA paperwork completed, restless as all get out barely able to eat. PA's put me in care of an MD as my PCP. Dr. Das has been a godsend. He orders a CT scan and starts working on my anxiety trying different medicine and stopping other medication. On temporary anxiety meds at the moment.

Beginning of third week I have a cardiologist appointment where I'm told my heart is perfectly fine. By this time I lost over 40lbs and could no longer eat. Sent to ER again where they did blood work to check everything and I mean everything. CT scan was also done at ER and it came back that all my organs are good. Once again told to follow up with GI and mental health. I have an EGD scheduled mid-June. During this time I enrolled in Teamcare mental health services but psychiatrist can't see me until June 8th. Hoping they can manage my mental health medication. I'm also on their therapy wait list. Still working on anxiety as these panic attacks are ruining my health. Can't seem to get a handle on this as I get anxious about anything. Could be something I read or see on TV. Even watching the church service online made me anxious today. I tried to go out with Brent this afternoon to visit a friend and it sent me into a panic attack making the rest of my day a tough one. I really can't exert myself much or feel ill. Don't feel like myself and lost my bubbly personality. The evenings as I'm afraid to fall asleep. I get anxious when Brent leaves for work but find if I keep myself busy at home I'm ok. Can't seem to handle public spaces yet.

Exhausted but I've been able to eat a bit better going on week 4. Doctor says I making progress although it's not as fast as I would like and it won't be. Afraid I can't go on vacation this summer or go to my professional conference this July. I've never been sick like this where I had an acute attack, can't bounce back and it's not something physical causing it that the doctors can find. Hard to believe mental health causes all these issues.

So to sum things up, after today's telemed visit I think we are starting to finally get to the bottom of things but I am going to need allot of reprogramming. My body totally had a melt down due to depression and anxiety. My body made me severely physically ill to tell me that I needed to address my well-being. This has been an awful process. Just starting to feel a bit more like myself today after four weeks. It's taken four ER visits, several continuous doctor visits, ultrasounds, ekg's, stress test, multiple blood work, X-rays, CT scan, mental health intake to see psychiatrist, wait list for therapy. We have determined that my body and organs are fine but that I have a chemical imbalance that has wreaked havoc on my body and will take weeks to recover and recoup from. Have to find out what medicine will work to keep my chemicals in the brain intact and functioning properly. Of course I would love to be back to my normal self instantly but this is a really slow process making slight improvements ever so slowly. I have to overcome the things that trigger my anxiety and panic attacks. I have had to overcome the fear of eating and being in public spaces. The fear of exerting myself so I don't have an attack. It's hard to explain to people how real this is when there is nothing tangible to see that can be instantly fixed. I miss being in worship with you and miss making music with you. Thank you again for your support, kindness, and graciousness. I look forward to when I can return and worship with all of you again.

With every best wish,

Jeffrey Clouser,
Music Ministry Coordinator

The Christian Ed and Fellowship/Hospitality would like to invite you to the Summer Service Series at Pine Acres. All Services begin at 10:00 AM. In case of inclement weather, services will be at the church. This will be announced on Facebook page. If you don't have access to Facebook, please call the church office.

July 23rd – this is confirmation Sunday. A different prayer path will be provided on this day. We'll be honoring our confirmands as part of the service. After service, you can catch up with the confirmands while enjoying a catered lunch from Angelo's. The menu will be announced July 2nd. Look for the signup sheet in the narthex so we know how much food to get catered.

August 20th – picnic day. We'll have a hymn sing, activities, bingo, scavenger hunt, rock painting and more. We might even try a game of kickball to try out the new backstop. Signup sheet with food options will be in the narthex to sign up for the potluck lunch. Meat options will be provided by the committee.

We hope you can join us for our Summer Service Series at Pine Acres. We will be doing our best to livestream and having the conference call available for these services.

Mission Corner

The Evangelism and Mission (E&M) committee would like to extend a HUGE thank you to the congregation for their support of the recent community dinner. We were very humbled by the number of our neighbors who came for a meal. If you've helped at the Lebanon Rescue Mission Sunday meals, you know they have 150-175 people come and most drive to them. We had 105 (plus the 15 who helped serve) come. Of those 105, 80% walked, meaning our neighbors. We are grateful for the support of our congregation to help us see this vision of serving our community come to life.

Future opportunities to serve our community:

June 8th – School's Out celebration with our young people in the neighborhood. We'll be serving sno cones and individual snack bags to celebrate summer is here. Some of our own young people will be helping to serve on this day as they are in Northern Lebanon (already will be out by June 8th) or Cedar Crest (coming to serve the middle school students).

June 15th – Grill Night at the Lebanon Rescue Mission. We'll be serving about 40 men as part of our grill night with the guys. Burgers and sausage along with some other trimmings to finish it off with the ice cream bar. Please see the signup sheets in the narthex.

August 5th – our next community dinner. However this time, we will be doing a community outdoor picnic. We'll have the grills all fired up for a dinner of burgers and dogs. We'll close the parking lot and Liberty St (yep that's the name of the alley that adjoins our parking lot) and bring tables and chairs and EZ Ups for a late afternoon with our neighbors. We are still early in the planning for this one but some things that we do know. From the logistics team, we need young people to help move chairs, tables and putting the EZ ups up. Also, we need 2-3 more EZ ups, so if you have 1 that we could borrow, please reach out to Kathy Follett or MJ Jones. From the food prep team, instead of applesauce, we will be doing fruit. If you'd like to start shopping as you see them on sale, look for the fruit that comes in containers like the applesauce, but is fruit (i.e. mixed fruit, peaches, etc). Desserts will not be needed for this dinner as we'll be doing ice cream.

Also, we were poor in our invitation to our own congregation at the last meal. We will be addressing that for this next dinner so stay tuned for that communication.

September 9th – 16th – currently there are 6 people signed up to go to Wilmington, NC to help WARM in our mission trip. If your plans have changed and you now are able to go, please contact Kathy Follett ASAP.
